Several Tools to Prevent, Recognize and Reduce...

Instructor Officer Jermaine Galloway:

Officer Galloway has been an Idaho law enforcement officer since 1997 and with the Boise Police Department (BPD) since 1999. Throughout the last 10 years at BPD, Officer Galloway has worked several different assignments, including: crime scene investigation (CSI), DUI task force, officer mentoring program, and as a training officer. He is currently a Neighborhood Contact Officer in the area that surrounds Boise State University (BSU). Officer Galloway has coordinated and led hundreds of alcohol related patrols and investigations, and has cited, tested or made contact with thousands of underage drinkers and drug users. Officer Galloway is an Idaho POST certified instructor in Alcohol Beverage laws, Hate & Bias Crimes, and Community Policing. Galloway currently provides nationwide training to educators, police officers, youth, and community coalition members.

Officer Galloway was recently named the 2009 OJJDP (Office of Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention) national alcohol law enforcement officer of the year.

Galloway received this award at the national convention in Dallas, Texas. Galloway is also the creator and executive director of the Northwest Alcohol Conference, and is a member of the National Liquor Law Enforcement Association (NLLEA) and Treasure Valley Alcohol & Drug Coalition (TVADC). In addition, Officer Galloway presented at the last three national underage drinking conferences, and the 2008 & 2009 Idaho State Prevention Conference in Sun Valley, Idaho. Officer Galloway was recently a featured presenter at the 2009 (CADCA) Community Alcohol and Drug Coalition Conference in Washington, DC.
